Executive Insights & Findings

Key Findings

- Market Trajectory (2011–2022): Total real estate transaction volume expanded steadily from a baseline of $2.60B in 2011, culminating in an all-time record peak of $40.25B in 2021 before cooling to $22.11B in 2022.
- Geographic Concentration: Transaction activity is heavily clustered in primary municipal centers, led by Hot Springs ($9.63B), Asheville ($5.26B), Lubbock ($5.18B), and Morgantown ($5.09B).
- Property Type Composition: Single Family homes dominate overall transaction volume at 51.9% (352,009 sales), followed by general Residential parcels (21.3%) and Condominiums (13.1%).
- Tax Valuation Anomalies: Severe sales ratio anomalies in specific municipal single-family segments (e.g., Bellingham at 37.16 and Keene at 21.30) indicate acute misalignments between market values and assessed tax baselines.
